THIRD REGISTRATION

POLICY

The South Dakota School of Mines and Technology Faculty has established a limit on the number of registration per student for a single course.

PROCEDURES

1. An individual student will be allowed no more than three registrations, including transfers, in any single course.

2. A grade of “W” shall be interpreted as a course registration.

3. Appeals to this policy must be made to the Academic Appeals Committee.